Comex CX500

Bluephone rental / owners need to be aware that the costs and availability of spare parts for this product will become a problem in the near future and a replacement payphone will be required.

Telstra has recently announced Payphones Service Australia [PSA] as a preferred supplier of payphones to the private market.

PSA now have available for the payphone market more modern and intelligent payphones the CX910 Plus and the CX500.

Both these products are preferred replacements for both the Goldphone and Bluephone.

PSA can provide all your existing or future payphone needs and offers the following options -

Rental Option

For a fee of $2.00 per day [plus GST] either the CX500 or the CX910 Plus payphone can be rented from PSA.

PSA offer a FREE upgrade [within an 80km `s radius] to either a brand new CX500 or CX910 Plus when placed on a 24 month rental plan.

Travel costs are incurred beyond that distance. Installation fees are only applied if relocation work or additional cabling is required.

Coin collection, coin jams and the payment of the annual Telstra line rental and call costs are all at the responsibility of the local owner.

Parts and labour are included under this option however, any repairs related to vandalism are not included.

Purchase Option

The sale price of the CX500 $1280 plus GST.

The sale price of the CX910 Plus $1780 plus GST

Installation: Within an 80km `s radius of a PSA dealer, installation costs are $220 plus GST.

Beyond the 80km `s customers will be quoted based on the distance to the installation site.

This to be billed at $1 per km based on www.whereis.com.

Delivery costs are included in the above sale prices.

Extended Warranty

Note:

PSA offer an extended parts and labour warranty on both phones.
